FRASER & WHEELER

Tucked away at the end of a small side street in a conservation area, this charming cottage offers a peaceful and convenient setting just yards from the town centre with its range of eateries, pubs, and independent shops. It is also just a short stroll from the beaches at Coryton and Boat Cove and regular bus and railway services are also close by.

The well presented accommodation retains period charm whilst benefitting from the benefits of modern living. Solar panels have relatively recently been fitted and heat retention electric heaters installed creating an unusually energy efficient cottage. Arranged mostly on the ground floor it comprises a double aspect living room, modern kitchen and shower room whilst on the first floor is the double bedroom.
