Tregolds Farmhouse is a substantial detached former farmhouse set in a peaceful semi-rural location just a mile from the village of St Merryn on the North Cornwall coast. This charming property offers a perfect blend of character and space, with generous accommodation and extensive grounds that include mature gardens and an adjoining paddock of approximately one acre with its own gated access.

The farmhouse welcomes you into an entrance hall that leads to well-arranged ground floor living spaces. The traditional kitchen, complete with an oil fired Rayburn, opens into a dining area that creates a warm and sociable heart to the home. Beyond this is a comfortable sitting room featuring a recessed stone fireplace with a wood-burning stove and access through French doors to a stone terrace overlooking the gardens. A study, which could serve as a fifth bedroom, a utility room and a ground floor shower room provide added practicality and flexibility for family living. There is even an integral swimming pool.

Up on the first floor there are four well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, as well as a large airing cupboard that offers potential to create an additional shower room if desired. Throughout the property, uPVC double-glazed windows add modern convenience without compromising its traditional feel.

Outside, the farmhouse is surrounded by mature, well-established gardens laid mostly to lawn, with hedging, trees and shrubs creating a sense of privacy. The stone terrace provides an ideal spot for outdoor dining and relaxation. Beyond the garden lies the paddock, suitable for a variety of uses such as grazing, recreation or further development subject to the necessary consents. There is ample off-road parking, an integral garage and additional space in front of the house and garage.
