DESCRIPTION

This enchanting period cottage has been much improved by the current owner and now offers attractively presented, light and airy accommodation with a wealth of original details throughout. The comfortably proportioned accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to the pretty sitting room with its cosy woodburning stove, the dining room also with wood burning stove, doors to the courtyard garden and open plan to the smartly fitted kitchen. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The house also benefits from a delightfully secluded courtyard garden to the rear providing the perfect environment for alfresco dining and entertaining together with an external store room currently housing the washing machine.

SITUATION

Bartholomew Street is conveniently situated in the heart of the conservation area, just behind the bustling High Street, with its range of interesting independent shops, boutiques, restaurants and cafes. The town is also well served by 4 supermarkets (including Waitrose, Sainsburys and Aldi), doctors surgeries, etc. The attractive, unspoilt seafront and picturesque Royal Military Canal are only a little further and there are a variety of sports and leisure facilities in the vicinity, including 2 golf courses and the Hotel Imperial Leisure Centre.

The area is fortunate in having particularly good communications with a mainline railway station in Saltwood (Sandling 3 miles) and access to the M20 (Junction 11 4 miles). The High Speed Link rail service to Stratford and St Pancras is available from Folkestone West (5 miles) and Ashford International (10 miles), with journey times of 53 and 37 minutes respectively. Eurostar trains to Paris and Brussels also departing from St Pancras. The Channel Tunnel Terminal is a little over a mile away and the ferry port of Dover is 12 miles distant. (All distances are approximate.)
