£385,000

This most attractive semi detached bungalow of character built about 75 years ago offers an excellent opportunity to those who wish to remodel and renovate a property to their own specification. The bright and spacious accommodation incorporates a sitting room with working fireplace, a kitchen/diner, 2 double bedrooms, bathroom and a large attic (approached by a pull down ladder). The property has the benefit of gas central heating and double glazing, there is a garage approached by a private drive offering parking for 2 vehicles and the attractive rear garden enjoys a favoured south westerly aspect and extends to about 47 feet in width arranged mainly as lawn with a hardstanding area for a greenhouse or shed. There is excellent scope for an extension or enlargement, subject to obtaining the usual planning consents.

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in this favoured established location with walking distance of the town centre with its wide range of shops, Victoria Park with its tennis courts and The Broadway with its array of restaurants. Haywards Heath mainline station is close at hand offering a fast and frequent service to central London (Victoria/London Bridge 42-45 minues), there are several well regarded schools in the locality catering for all age groups and the town has a modern leisure centre, a Waitrose and Sainsbury superstore. The A23 lies about 6 miles to the west providing a direct route to the motorway network, Gatwick Airport is about 14 miles to the north and the cosmopolitan city of Brighton and the coast is a similar distance to the south, whilst the South Downs National Park is within an easy drive offering a beautiful natural venue for countryside walking.
